Office of the District Attorney Summer 2027 Law Student Internship

The Office of the District Attorney – Prosecutorial District 6 (New Hanover and Pender Counties) is recruiting rising 2L and 3L law school students for Summer 2027 internships. Students will be assigned to work primarily in District Court but will also have opportunities to work on Superior Court cases. Tasks include but are not limited to calling the docket in court each morning; interviewing victims and witnesses; entering pleas; trying misdemeanor cases; reviewing evidence; preparing felony files; and observing Superior Court. The program also includes field trips to partner organizations to encourage a broader understanding of the District Attorney's Office and its relationship with other agencies.

Internship Details

- May-July. (exact dates to come)
- 40 hours per week
- Ability to travel to both New Hanover and Pender County
